"Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long."
Psalm 25:5

The Sunday before Easter is known as Palm Sunday. It marks the entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem exactly one week before his resurrection, and we use Palm Sunday to begin the holiest week of their year, which culminates on Easter Sunday.

The four gospels in the Bible describe how Christ and his disciples returned to Jerusalem for the Jewish feast of Passover. According to the Bible, Christ entered the city of Jerusalem riding a donkey, therefore fulfilling a prophecy about the Messiah's arrival. Crowds of people lined the path he rode, laying down their cloaks in the street in front of him. They also placed palm branches before him—a gesture reserved for only the most honored. They sang praises to Christ with "Hosanna," which means "save us now."
